

“Creating New Visions; Reaching New Horizons”

Message from the Principal:

Special populations are critical to the success of a campus and East is no exception. Please make sure you incorporate all ELPS into your lesson plans necessary for students to be successful. If you need any assistance with special pops, we do have the staff that can assist in any way possible.

Thanks for all you do!

Weekly Spotlight:

WISD CTE student, Blass Garcia, Business Professionals of America (BPA) Regional President, and WEHS BPA Chapter II member hosted the 2018 Area II/Region 3 BPA Fall Leadership Conference at Weslaco East HS on Saturday, October 13, 2018. Lamar Jones (Jank BBQ Sauce) was the Opening Session guest speaker, and Hidalgo County Commissioner, David Fuentes provided the Closing Session Keynote address at the conference. Over 200 BPA students and sponsors from 14 Valley high schools (McAllen – Brownsville) attended the conference.

The student breakout sessions included:

Abraham Chapa, BPA State Vice-President: BPA 101”
Desteny Duran, BPA Area II/Region 4 President: “BPA Torch Awards”

Debbie Bocanegra, Magic Valley Electric Co-op: “Thriving in the Workplace”

Carey Boleach, WEHS Head Counselor: “Navigating the Road to College”

Officer Joe Rodriguez, and Officer Albert Ponce, Weslaco PD: “Active Attack Events”

Rocio Martinez, and Vania Vazquez, South Texas Federal Credit Union: “Financial Literacy”

Eloise Montemayor, United Way of South Texas: “The Importance of Community Service”

Excellent job Mr. Gonzalez and his students for organizing such a wonderful educational event for the students of the RGV. EAST is proud!
